

FACULTY ADVISING FORM
Honors Thesis – Art History

The Spring 2020 Senior Thesis Seminar will consist of critiques that take place during weekly meetings with department thesis advisor Michelle Apotsos and fellow students. The structure generally is tutorial format, with occasional group meetings in order to solicit diverse responses and feedback. That being said, you must have a faculty advisor in an appropriate field to be a more specialized reader. This individual is usually but not always the person for whom you wrote a paper on the topic you want to turn into a thesis. It is up to you to determine if that faculty member is available and willing to serve as your advisor.

Do not send in this form unless the advisor is also willing to sign your work schedule and research plan for January.

All completed and signed materials are due via email by Friday, December 4, 4:30 pm to Beverly Sylvester, Art Department Administrative Assistant, in Lawrence Hall.

Your name:

Name of faculty advisor:

Tentative thesis title / topic:

Class the original paper was written for:

Course Number:

Professor:

Other classes you have taken that are relevant to your topic and/or methods:

I agree to be the primary faculty advisor for this topic, which I feel can be developed into a one-semester thesis.

Thesis Advisor Signature:

Date: